REGISTERED NURSES URGENTLY NEEDED 2017-2019

Our hospital is staffed by a team of both Togolese and western-trained nurses. Our nursing school in Mango will graduate another class of students in 2019. We very much need you to be a part of our team providing direct patient care. We need:

- 6 Nurses for one-year commitments
- 10 Nurses for 6-month commitments
Location

Togo is a tiny country in West Africa sandwiched between Ghana and Benin. It is just north of the equator and is a part of "sub-Saharan West Africa." The primary language is French.

People Groups

The Hospital of Hope ministers to several "least reached people groups" including Fulani, Tchokossi, Gangam, and Hausa. Many other tribal groups also are served.

Religious Culture

The primary religious cultures of the people groups served are Popular Islam and Animistic.

Why should you come to Togo?

"God is at work. The harvest is plentiful and the workers are few!"
- Susanna C.

"Here we get the chance to save lives every day, to share God’s love with the people who may have never heard his name before, and to be stretched and grown in our walks with Jesus."
- Carol P.

"There is a huge need and the people are so grateful for all we do."
- Sarah L.

"Why not?"
- Lindsey K.

Requirements

Love for God.
One year of nursing experience.
Ability to do bedside patient care.
Desire to serve.
A church behind you

"How will they be saved unless they believe, how will they believe unless they hear, how will they hear unless someone tells them, how will someone tell them unless someone is sent?"

-Romans 10:13-15
