

Introduction to the Morality & Missions Survey

In 1992, ABWE established a policy whereby all missionary candidates would be queried regarding their moral development history.

Please complete the attached questionnaire. For affirmative replies, on a separate piece of paper, please provide an explanation including how you have biblically dealt with this issue.

ABWE needs your complete, honest, and open responses to these questions. We are aware that this is sensitive information and want you to know that we will keep this information confidential. Only those vital to the screening process will have access to the information.

ABWE wishes to provide some level of assurance that approved candidates have dealt with past moral issues significantly such that their current ministries are not hindered. Please sign the statement below, and if you have further questions about this, please feel free to contact Alex Kocman or any other Mobilization personnel.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read this document regarding any problems or experiences of moral impurity or abuse that may have occurred in my past. In keeping with the spirit of this letter, I have completed the Morality & Missions Survey completely and accurately in complete integrity without holding anything undisclosed.

Morality & Missions Survey

Our culture is saturated with sensual and sexual temptations and the technology to make such things instantly available.

From the beginning of time, Satan has used sensual and sexual temptations to disrupt the work of God and defeat His chosen workers. The book of Genesis alone provides ample evidence of his evil, sadistic warfare strategy. Genesis records incidents of rape, incest, lust, homosexuality, fornication and sexual perversion.

Please keep in mind that this survey will allow you to acknowledge past moral failure and to convincingly declare that you are not now being manipulated and intimidated by sensual and sexual desire.

We are aware that there is no hiding place from the well orchestrated saturation of sensual temptation. Temptations are not avoidable. What is critical to success in ministry and missions is complete and authentic freedom from intentional patterns of immoral thoughts and behaviors.

Please answer the following questions. For affirmative replies, please print an explanation on a separate piece of paper.
